Gray-level slicing w/out background:

Enhances a specific range of intensity levels while setting all other pixel values to 0. isolating specific features.

Gray-level slicing w/ background:

Enhances a certain range of intensity levels but retains the rest of image's intensity levels as they are preserving the background.